

MARIA ISOLINA DABOVE

Lawyer graduated at Universidad Nacional de Rosario, School of Law – Argentina (1988). Doctor of Law (PhD) – Universidad Carlos III de Madrid – Spain. (1998).

Researcher at Consejo Nacional de Investigaciones Científicas y Técnicas – CONICET in Universidad de Buenos Aires (Argentina).

Director of the Elder Law Research Center at Universidad Nacional de Rosario (Argentina) and the Observatory for Human Rights of the Elderly -Universidad de Morón. Founder and principal lecturer of the Chair of Elder Law at Universidad Nacional de Rosario, Universidad de Buenos Aires and Universidad Nacional de Córdoba.

Undergraduate and graduate professor at Universidad de Buenos Aires, Universidad Nacional de Rosario, de Provincia de Buenos Aires, de Mar del Plata y de Córdoba in Argentina. She has participated in conferences and undergraduate and graduate courses in Brazil, Nicaragua, Australia, Chile, Panamá, Paraguay, Uruguay, México, Colombia, Spain, France, Germany, Switzerland and United States of America. She has been in charge of CONICET doctoral fellowships and PhD and Master theses.

Author of "Rights of Older People" published by Ciudad Argentina (Buenos Aires – Madrid, 2002), Director and author of "Elder Law: an interdisciplinary perspective", published by Juris (Rosario, 2006). "Human rights of older people: access to justice and international protection" published by Astrea (Buenos Aires – Colombia, 2015), among others. She has published peer review articles in numerous national and foreign journals.

She integrated OAS Argentina official delegation that worked in the development of the Inter- American Convention on the Rights of Older People until its approval in 06/15/2015. She is part of the UN Argentina official delegation that is developing the International Convention on the Rights of Older People (OEWG) since 2011.

She is member of INPEA (International Network for the Prevention of Elder Abuse); the Latin American Research Network (LARNA) of the Oxford Institute of Ageing and the International Guardianship Network (IGN).

In 1999 she was granted the "Young Jurist" recognition by the Law and Social Science National Academy (Córdoba). In 2012 and 2013, she has been honored by the Buenos Aires City Bar Association, by the Rosario City Council and by the Moron City Bar Association, for her work in building Elder Law as a new legal specialty. In 2016, she has been honored by the Corte Suprema de México.

